

COUNTRY US

DATE October 13, 2015

PUBLICATION Racked NY

PRODUCT CATEGORY Bulgari & Rome: Eternal Inspiration

This Week, Attend a Free Concert in Brooklyn and Shop Hayward for Less

By Kathryn Lindsay | October 13, 2015

The upcoming shopping and fashion events you need to know about in New York City.

MIDTOWN—Drop by the Bulgari flagship (730 Fifth Ave) between Thursday, October 15th and Sunday, November 22nd to see their exhibition of Rome’s influence on their work. The collection features 40 pieces from the 1930s to the present day that highlight the brand’s subtle and not-so-subtle nods to ancient Roman culture. Additionally, the exhibition will display rare coins from the American Numismatic Society and Roman antiquities, like the portrait bust and torso of Venus on loan from Ariadne Galleries. The guided tours are free and open to the public daily.